The New State Budget Keeps 1.1 Million Children in Public Schools Waiting...

- WITHOUT dedicated funding to survive the fiscal cliffs ahead
- WITHOUT $135 million in classroom funding that was cut a decade ago
- WITHOUT $420 million in needed building repairs and maintenance
- WITHOUT teachers in 1,700 classrooms

Governor Ducey + 48 State Lawmakers Put Other Items Before Public Education

- $190 million early loan payments
- $30 million one-time accounting adjustment
- $304 million to private schools through tax credits, ESA vouchers, and 529 plans
- $542 million deposit into the rainy day fund
- $386 million in permanent tax cuts; These go on auto-pilot no matter how much they cost or what harm they cause, they can’t be changed without a 2/3 vote
